Numb. 10708.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday March 3, to Saturday March 7, 1767.

Stockholm, February 2.

WE are very much ſurpriſed to ſee ſeveral Accounts, without the leaſt Foundation of Truth, lately publiſhed in ſome of the Foreign Gazettes, relating as well to ſome of the Repreſentatives of the laſt Diet, as to the publick Meaſures and Regulations which the Exigencies of the State required. The Reports, which have been inſerted with regard to ſome private Perſons need no other Refutation than their own apparent and notorious Falſity, eſpecially as the Events ſpoken of have never happened. But as ſeveral Regulations, particularly relating to the Manufactures, have been repreſented in a leſs favourable Light than they deſerve, there is alſo much Reaſon to apprehend, that all this has been done with a determined wicked Intention, as no Alteration has been made with regard to them, but what has been deemed proper and conducive to their Support. Thus by aboliſhing the Board of Manufactures, and leaving the Management of its Buſineſs to the Royal Board of Trade, nothing elſe has been done, than to recommit the Fund, (which was raiſed for the Support of the Manufactures) to the very ſame Perſons under whoſe Care and Inſpection it originally was; and that the Sum, ſaved by reducing the expenſive Eſtabliſhment of the aforeſaid Board of Manufactures, might be employed for the Good and Encouragement of the Manufactures themſelves.

Every one, within and without this Kingdom, may therefore be perſuaded, that the Manufactures of Sweden, after this Time, as has been done heretofore, ſhall be promoted and encouraged with the utmoſt Care, and ſhall enjoy all the Rights, Privileges and Advantages, which can protect and ſecure the Manufactures themſelves, and the Perſons concerned in the Working of them.
